

JOIN MCFR TODAY:

MCFR Membership Application

Name _____
Occupation _____
Agency/Organization _____
Address _____
City, State, Zip _____
Phone (____) _____
Fax (____) _____
Email _____

Choose One Category

- Professional
Member.....$45.00
- Student/Retired
Member.....$25.00
- Organizational
Member.....$75.00

Donation Opportunities

I would like to make a donation in memory or in honor of _____
$ _____

I would like to make a donation to the Student Scholarship Fund $ _____

Total Enclosed $ _____

Please make check payable to "MCFR"
and send to: MCFR 2738 Evergreen Circle
St. Paul, MN 55110

Questions?

Call 651-407-0950, email
l.vukelich@comcast.net or go to www.mcfr.net.

MEET THE COORDINATOR:

We look forward to meeting
YOU!

Alisha Hardman is a PhD student in the Family, Youth, and Community program
at the U of M.

Contact Alisha at:
hardm016@umn.edu

Minnesota Council on Family Relations

2738 Evergreen Circle
St. Paul, MN 55110
Phone: 651.407.0950

STUDENT SECTION

MCFR
Minnesota Council on Family Relations

Where students become professionals

WWW.MCFR.NET

WHAT IS THE STUDENT SECTION?

“The purpose of the MCFR student section is to allow students and student supporters to join together to facilitate networking, mentoring, and dynamic exchanges of knowledge. This section will be open to all members of MCFR who are students at any level and/or who desire to be part of the lives of those who build the future of the family field.

The goals of this section are to: provide a forum for students to exchange, discuss, and present research data and information; create a dialogue about the ethical issues that family researchers, educators, and professionals face; and promote collaboration in research and project endeavors in the community.”

WHY SHOULD I JOIN THE STUDENT SECTION?

You will receive all of the benefits of being an MCFR member, including:

- Subscription to the MCFR Family Forum (3 issues – two electronic, one paper)
- Reduced registration fees for MCFR annual spring and fall conferences
- Membership to the MCFR listserv

Plus, you will get these added benefits:

- It's Free...!*
- Network with students, faculty, and family professionals
- Receive a discount on MCFR conferences*
- Apply for scholarships for MCFR conferences*
- Learn more about the field of family life education
- Connect with a community of students in the family studies field
- Strengthen your resume and CV through your involvement in a professional organization
- Present student research and projects at semi-annual MCFR conferences
- Provide leadership within the student section*
- Become eligible for student award nominations through the Affiliate Council*

* Requires paid student MCFR membership

HOW DO I JOIN THE STUDENT SECTION?

Already a member of MCFR?

- Contact the student section coordinator (Alisha-hardm016@umn.edu)

Not a member of MCFR? You can join MCFR by choosing one of these three options:

- Visit MCFR website: <http://www.mcfr.net>
- Come to one of our Student Section Social Events. (Find upcoming events at <http://www.mcfr.net/students.htm>)
- Check the appropriate boxes below, fill out the form on reverse side, and mail it in to MCFR

I am interested in:

- Joining the Student Section
- Providing leadership in the Student Section
- Receiving more information about the Student Section